GHP IN BRIEF

GHP is the world's largest designer and manufacturer of animatronics for theme parks, museums, dining and retail locations, and other attractions around the world. Clients include The Walt Disney Company, Universal Studios, NASA, Nike, Coca-Cola, Mattel, Cedar Fair, and hundreds more. Find out more at www.garnerholt.com

- GHP was founded in 1977 by Garner L. Holt, who was then only 16 years old

- GHP owns and operates a 138,000 square-foot, full-service, fully-outfitted design and production facility

- Since 1977, GHP has built nearly 5,000 individual animatronic figures and hundreds of animated props and show action systems

- GHP has built more than 450 animatronic shows for Chuck E. Cheese restaurants around the world

- GHP was the first outside company allowed to create an animatronic figure for a classic Disney attraction (Jack Skellington for Disneyland's Haunted Mansion Holiday)

- Since 2000, GHP has built more than 500 animatronic figures for Disney Theme Parks. We have figures in every Disney resort worldwide

- We've created more than 150 animated figures for Universal Studios parks around the world

- Our work can be found in 35 countries on six continents in all of the world's leading theme parks and attractions from Anaheim to Amsterdam

- The majority of our figures operate using pneumatic power, though we are the industry leader in the use of cutting-edge electric actuation

- Most of GHP's masks for animatronics are made of custom silicone

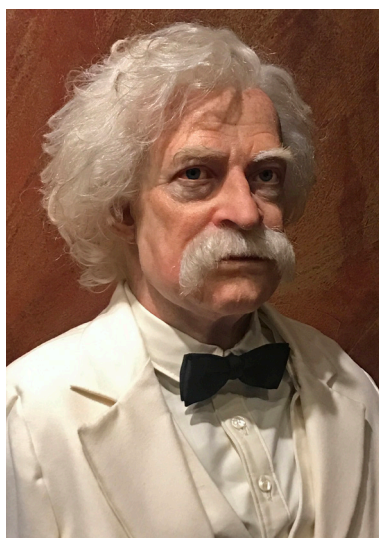

- We use only synthetic furs, teeth, and claws in finishing our animatronics

A WORLD OF MAGICAL WONDERS

GHP's work can be seen in leading theme parks and attractions around the world in many of the most recognizable experiences anywhere

- Our "Living Faces of History" expressive animatronic heads have more motion capability than any characters created anywhere—some have as many as 40 unique functions in the face alone
- GHP has created two of the largest animatronic figures in the world: Ursula the Sea Witch at Tokyo DisneySea, and the Maleficent Dragon at Disneyland
- In addition to our unmatched design and production capabilities, GHP also operates Garner Holt Education through Imagination, LLC, a STEM/STEAM-focused educational products and services company offering activities, animatronics, and "Ani-Makerspaces" for school and other sites, plus tours of GHP, all to inspire the next generation of dreamers and doers

UNPARALLELED REALISM

Our "Living Faces of History" expressive animatronic head series are the most fluid and life-like characters ever created
